

Title: History Intern
Supervisor(s): Historian
Employment Type: Internship
Application: Please fill out an application (available on the website)

Position Summary

Dow Gardens is seeking an intern for its History Department, which is responsible for managing the family archives as well as preservation and programs inside of Herbert H. and Grace A. Dow's 1899 home, The Pines. The intern will work under the leadership of the Historian and focus on cataloging and researching artifacts in the collections, and digitizing archival material. The intern will also gain experience planning and leading tours and programs.

This is a 14-week paid internship.

Requirements

- Junior or Senior in a four-year program, or currently enrolled in a graduate program in history, public history, archaeology, anthropology, or related field.
- Applicants need to be comfortable working both collaboratively and independently.
- Comfortable working behind the scenes and speaking to the public in a tour or program setting.
- Physical requirements include: Ability to lift up to 30 pounds and climb multiple sets of stairs.

About Dow Gardens

Since being established in 1899, as a home for Herbert H. and Grace A. Dow and family, the 110-acre Dow Gardens now welcomes thousands of guests per year. Visitors are invited to leave the pathway and explore the uniquely-designed landscape, take a tour of the historic Pines Home, participate in one of many hands-on educational programs, stroll the nation's longest canopy walk, and discover beautiful art and music in a relaxed setting.